

Recycle Your Old Tax Files!

The City of San Diego
Environmental Services Department and Allan Company host the sixth annual Residential Tax Files Recycling Program
April 6-19, 2008.

- The tax files drop-off service is FREE to City of San Diego residents only. (Limit to one banker's box per customer).
- All documents will be securely stored and shredded before being recycled.
- Only residential tax files are accepted.
- Businesses can find recycling services in the Yellow Pages, under "Business Records Destruction."
- Check with a tax professional regarding how long you should keep your tax returns on file.

Remember, you can also recycle bagged, shredded paper in your blue, curbside recycling bin.
